

George Bernard Shaw (1856 - 1950)

Fact File...

Lived at Ayot St Lawrence for 40 years. This house was later called Shaw's Corner.

George Bernard Shaw wrote more than sixty plays.

There is a revolving writing hut in his garden

Shaw was a vegetarian and an amateur photographer.

He regularly cycled to Wheathampstead Station from Ayot St. Lawrence. The station master would make the train wait for Mr. Shaw

At Christmas, Shaw gave every child in Wheathampstead a shilling. They were told not to give it to their parents!

He died aged 94 after falling out of a tree.

Imagine...

Imagine you meet George Bernard Shaw at Wheathampstead Station. Write your conversation.

George Bernard Shaw wrote a rhyming poem about Ayot St Lawrence. Write a similar poem about Wheathampstead.

Find a vegetarian recipe for George Bernard Shaw

Draw a map to show George Bernard Shaw three different routes from Shaw's Corner to Wheathampstead Station.

Find out...

About Androcles and the Lion. You could produce a cartoon version.